HUMAN RESOURCES POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Abuse &amp; Harassment Policy	Effective Date: March 30 2023	Page 1 of 11
Policy Number: 001	Supersedes: March 16 2023

POLICY STATEMENT

The objective of this policy is to provide an environment that fosters mutual respect and working relationships free of abuse. Some behaviours that are defined as abuse can also constitute harassment when the behaviour breaches human rights or appropriate relationship boundaries. The Ontario Human Rights Code states that prohibited grounds of discrimination are those that are based on race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, age, record of offences, marital status, family status or handicap.

This policy applies to the Bowmanville Tennis Club, including but not limited to all directors, officers, consultants, volunteers, coaches, athletes, and officials associated with specific Bowmanville Tennis Club activities (collectively referred to in this policy as “members” of the Bowmanville Tennis Club).

The Bowmanville Tennis Club prohibits and will not condone any form of abuse or neglect, whether physical, emotional, or sexual, of any participant of any age in any of its programs. The Bowmanville Tennis Club expects every member (as defined above) to take all reasonable steps to safeguard the welfare of Bowmanville Tennis Club participants and to protect them from any form of maltreatment. The Bowmanville Tennis Club encourages the reporting of all incidents of abuse, regardless of who the offender may be.

Allegations of abuse or neglect will be dealt with in accordance with the Bowmanville Tennis Club’s complaint procedures as set out in this policy. This policy applies to abuse occurring during the course or in conjunction with any Bowmanville Tennis Club business, activities, or events.

Notwithstanding this policy, every person who experiences abuse continues to have the right to seek assistance from the police, their provincial child protection authority, and their provincial human rights commission, even when steps are being taken under this policy.

GUIDELINES

1. Abuse is any form of physical, emotional and/or sexual mistreatment or lack of care which causes physical injury or emotional damage. Abuse may be perpetrated by an adult or a child, and the victim may be an adult or a child.

2. Child abuse raises distinct issues and triggers unique legal obligations. A common characteristic of all forms of abuse against children and youth is an abuse of power or authority and/or breach of trust by an adult over a child. In Ontario, a person is considered a child, for purposes of triggering a legal obligation to report child abuse if this person is under 18 years of age.

3. Physical abuse occurs when a person purposefully injures or threatens to injure another person. This may include slapping, hitting, shaking, kicking, pulling hair or ears, throwing, and shoving, grabbing, hazing or excessive exercise as a form of punishment.

4. Emotional abuse is a chronic attack on a person’s self-esteem. It is psychologically destructive behaviour. It can take the form of, among other things, name-calling, threatening, ridiculing, berating, intimidating, isolating, hazing, or ignoring the person’s needs.

5. Sexual abuse occurs when a person, without their consent, is used by another person for his or her own sexual stimulation or gratification. Children under 14 are deemed not to consent to sexual touching, by an adult. Children under 18 are deemed not to consent to sexual activity by an adult who is in a position of authority or trust. There are different types of sexual abuse, some of which involve physical contact, and some of which do not. Sexual abuse that does not involve physical contact includes making obscene remarks, voyeurism, showing pornography, forcing a person to watch sexual acts, asking sexually intrusive questions or making sexually intrusive comments, and forcing a person to pose for sexual photographs or videos.

6. Neglect is chronic inattention to the basic necessities of life such as clothing, shelter, nutritious diets, education, good hygiene, supervision, medical and dental care, adequate rest, safe environment, moral guidance and discipline, exercise, and fresh air. This may occur in tennis when injuries are not adequately treated or players are made to play with injuries, equipment is inadequate or unsafe, no one intervenes when team members are persistently harassing another player, or road trips are not properly supervised.

7. Abuse and neglect may be inflicted directly or indirectly, and through any means of communication, including through electronic communications.

RESPONSIBILITY

1. The Bowmanville Tennis Club President and the Bowmanville Tennis Club Executive are responsible for the implementation of this policy. In addition, they are responsible for:

- ensuring that all Members are aware that any concerns related to allegations of abuse can be reported to any Director of the Bowmanville Tennis Club
- discouraging and dealing with abuse within the Bowmanville Tennis Club.

3. Members of the Bowmanville Tennis Club against whom a complaint of abuse is substantiated may be severely disciplined, up to and including termination of membership.

Policy Number: 001	Supersedes: March 16 2023

CONFIDENTIALITY

1. The Bowmanville Tennis Club understands that it can be extremely difficult to come forward with a complaint of abuse and that it can be devastating to be wrongly convicted of abuse. The Bowmanville Tennis Club recognizes the interests of both the complainant and the respondent in keeping the matter confidential.

2. However, abuse allegations must be dealt with in a forthright and fair manner. This includes an obligation to share relevant information with child protection authorities and police, and to be fair to the alleged abuser by providing sufficient information about the allegation that concerns them to enable them to respond properly. In many cases, this will mean that anonymity is not feasible or fair. However, members can be assured that the Bowmanville Tennis Club will take all possible steps to preserve confidentiality to the extent reasonably possible. Where information pertaining to allegations is disseminated, the status of the allegations as being allegations only should be articulated.

REPRISALS AND FALSE ALLEGATIONS

1. A person who makes a complaint of abuse, whether under this policy or otherwise, should not be penalized for doing so. Retaliation against an individual for having filed a complaint or for having participated in any procedure under this policy will not be tolerated and will be treated as a disciplinary offence.

2. The making of false, frivolous, or malicious allegations of abuse by another person will likewise be treated as a disciplinary offence.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

1. Individuals who believe they have been subjected to abuse, which includes discrimination or harassment, should immediately report the incident to a Director of the BTC. All complaints will be promptly, and thoroughly investigated. The Bowmanville Tennis Club will treat such complaints as confidentially as possible, releasing information on to only those with a need or right to know.

2. Any person who observes or becomes aware of any discrimination or harassment should immediately advise a Director of the BTC. No person should assume that the Bowmanville Tennis Club is aware of the problem.

3. A person who experiences harassment is encouraged to make it known to the harasser that the behavior is unwelcome, offensive, and contrary to this policy.

4. If confronting the harasser is not reasonably possible or if after confronting the harasser the harassment continues, the complainant should seek the advice of the Directors of the BTC.

5. The Directors shall inform the complainant of:

- the options for pursuing an informal resolution of his or her complaint.
- the right to lay a formal written complaint under this policy when an informal resolution is inappropriate or not feasible.
- the availability of counseling and other support through the assistance of the Bowmanville Tennis Club.
- the confidentiality provisions of this policy.
- the right to withdraw from any further action in connection with the complaint at any stage (even though the Bowmanville Tennis Club might continue to investigate the complaint).
- other avenues of recourse, including the right to file a complaint with a human rights commission or, where appropriate, to contact the police to have them lay a formal charge under the Criminal Code.

6. There are four possible outcomes to this initial meeting of complainant and the Director(s).

a) The complainant and Director(s) agree that the conduct does not constitute harassment.

- If this occurs, the Director(s) will take no further action and will make no written record of the complaint.

b) The complainant brings evidence of harassment and chooses to pursue an informal resolution of the complaint

- If this occurs, the Director(s) will assist the two parties to negotiate a solution acceptable to the complaint or may assist the complainant with informal means of resolving the complaint. If desired by the parties and if appropriate, the Director(s) may also seek the assistance of a neutral mediator.
- If an informal resolution yields a result, which is acceptable to both parties, the Director(s) will make a written record that a complaint was made and was resolved informally to the satisfaction of both parties and will take no further action.
- If informal resolution fails to satisfy the complaint, the complainant may reserve the option of laying a formal written complaint.
- If an informal resolution is not achieved, and the complainant does not file a written complaint, a record of his or her dealings with the Director(s) will be kept by the Director(s) Such record will be confidential.

c) The complainant brings evidence of harassment and decides to lay a formal written complaint.

- If this occurs, the Director(s) will assist the complainant in drafting a formal written complaint, to be signed by the complainant, and a copy given to the respondent without delay. The written complaint should set out the details of the incident(s), the names of any witnesses to the incident(s) and should be dated and signed.
- The respondent will be given an opportunity to provide a written response to the complaint. The Director(s) may assist the respondent in preparing this response.

d) The complainant brings evidence of harassment but does not wish to lay a formal complaint.

- If this occurs, the Director(s) must decide if, pursuing further the alleged harassment is serious enough to warrant laying a formal written complaint, even if it is against the wishes of the complainant.
- When the Director(s) decides that the evidence and surrounding circumstances require a formal written complaint, the Director(s) will issue a formal written complaint and, without delay, provide copies of the complaint to both the complainant and the respondent. In such cases, the procedures in Section 7-16 shall apply.

As soon as reasonably possible after receiving the written complaint, but in any case within 21 days, the Director(s) shall submit a report to the Executive of the Bowmanville Tennis Club and the President, containing the documentation filed by both parties along with a recommendation (and reasons for the recommendation) that:

If the respondent does not appear, the hearing may proceed in any event.
- A representative or adviser may accompany the complainant and respondent.
- The Director(s) shall attend the hearing at the request of the panel.

12. A copy of the report of the case review panel shall be provided, without delay, to both the complainant and the respondent.

HUMAN RESOURCES POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Abuse &amp; Harassment Policy	Effective Date: March 30 2023	Page 7 of 11
Policy Number: 001	Supersedes: March 16 2023

17. The foregoing procedures are not applicable to cases of suspected Child Abuse and Serious Violence (dealt with below)

PROCEDURES FOR ADDRESSING SUSPECTED CHILD ABUSE

General Principles

1. The child protection authorities and/or police have prime responsibility for the investigation of allegations of child abuse and neglect. This means that any internal Bowmanville Tennis Club investigation will generally be deferred or modified, pending the completion of a related child protection or police investigation. The Bowmanville Tennis Club will work cooperatively with the appropriate child protection authority and police and will share all information relevant to an investigation, to the extent permitted by law.

Receiving a Complaint from a Child

2. An initial disclosure of alleged child abuse must be received and responded to appropriately. Trauma may result from responses that seek to minimize or discount truthful disclosures. Some basic “dos and don’ts” for receiving a child’s disclosure are:

DO	DON'T
Listen to the child.	Lead or suggest answers to the child.
Tell the child who must be notified.	Promise the child not to tell anyone.
Reassure the child that the conduct described is not the child’s fault and that the child has done the right thing by disclosing.	Criticize the child for how or when disclosure has been made.
Speak to the child in private.	Bring the suspected perpetrator in to confront the child.
Determine the immediate safety needs of the child, involving the child in this decision.	Return the child to a risk laden situation.

3. Where a member of the Bowmanville Tennis Club has reasonable grounds to suspect that a child has suffered or is at risk of likely suffering child abuse, he or she must report those suspicions and the information on which they are based directly to the provincial or territorial child protection authority. The reporting person may request that one or more representatives of the Bowmanville Tennis Club be present while he or she is making the report to the child protection authority.

Abuse &amp; Harassment Policy	Effective Date: March 30 2023	Page 8 of 11
Policy Number: 001	Supersedes: March 16 2023

4. The member must also immediately notify the Director(s) of the Bowmanville Tennis Club.
  5. The Director(s) must immediately notify the child's parents or guardians unless it would be inappropriate to do so in the circumstances. It may be appropriate in some cases to seek the advice of the child protection authority prior to contacting the child's parents or guardians.
  6. The reporting person may need to ask questions of the child or of the child's parent to clarify the nature of the complaint. Questioning should occur only until the point that the person has a reasonable suspicion that the child has been abused. Any further questioning constitutes investigation, which is the responsibility of the child protection authority or the police. Employees and members of the Bowmanville Tennis Club must avoid interfering with the child protection or police investigation.
  7. The reporting person must document in writing all details of the report and provide a copy to the Director(s). The Director(s) must write to the child protection authority confirming that the suspicion has been reported and keep a copy of the letter.
  8. The Director(s) shall consult with the child protection authority as to the best way to address the child's continued involvement in Bowmanville Tennis Club activities, if appropriate, and shall follow up with the child protection authority to determine the outcome of the investigation.
  9. The Bowmanville Tennis Club shall ensure that support structures are available for children who disclose alleged abuse.
- When a Member is Suspected
10. Where a member of the Bowmanville Tennis is suspected of conduct that may constitute child abuse, the Director(s) must be notified immediately and provided with all relevant information regarding the suspicion. Where a Director is suspected of such conduct, another Director(s) must be notified.
  11. The subject matter of a complaint should not be discussed with the alleged perpetrator until specific instructions are received from the investigating police or child protection authority.
  12. Generally, where abuse has been alleged against a member, the individual should be removed from situations involving unsupervised access to children, pending determination as to whether abuse occurred. Depending on the circumstances, removal may result in suspension of membership, or immediate termination of membership if, for example, abuse is admitted.
  13. The member's status should be reassessed upon completion of any police or child protection investigation, after any criminal charges are laid, after any criminal case is completed, and upon completion of any internal Bowmanville Tennis Club investigation.
  14. Any member of the Bowmanville Tennis Club may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a suspected perpetrator of child abuse. However, any Discipline Committee struck must determine whether to defer its investigation or disciplinary proceedings until the child protection or police investigation is complete.

Abuse &amp; Harassment Policy	Effective Date: March 30 2023	Page 9 of 11
Policy Number: 001	Supersedes: March 16 2023

15. Regardless of whether a member of the Bowmanville Tennis Club initiates disciplinary proceedings, the Director(s) must consider whether an internal Bowmanville Tennis Club investigation should be conducted, or internal disciplinary proceedings commenced, and determine the appropriate timing of any investigation or proceedings. A criminal conviction or finding of guilt will justify disciplinary action, including termination of membership. The need for a full internal investigation by the Bowmanville Tennis Club may thereby be unnecessary. However, an internal investigation may be required where no criminal investigation or prosecution is initiated, or where criminal charges are withdrawn, stayed, or dismissed. This is a recognition that criminal charges involve a different burden of proof, and that different rules of admissibility are applicable in a disciplinary context.

16. Any internal investigation conducted by the Bowmanville Tennis Club and any resulting disciplinary proceedings in connection with alleged abuse should be informed by the desirability of:

- Avoiding or reducing trauma to the child;
- Respecting the confidentiality and privacy interests of all affected parties, to the extent possible;
- Ensuring fairness to the Bowmanville Tennis Club member against whom a complaint has been made.

When a Child is Suspected

17. Where a member of the Bowmanville Tennis Club who is a child is suspected of conduct that may constitute child abuse, the procedures outlined above apply, with necessary modifications. The child protection authority should be contacted about both the victim and the alleged perpetrator, and the parents of both the victim and the alleged perpetrator should be notified.

18. The Director(s) should review the available information to determine whether the alleged perpetrator may continue to participate in Bowmanville Tennis Club activities pending investigation of the matter. Advice of the child protection authority or the police may be sought in this regard.

19. A decision to permit the alleged perpetrator to continue to participate may be made if it is determined, after appropriate consultation, that the alleged perpetrator's continued involvement is unlikely to be detrimental to the physical or mental well-being of the alleged victim or witnesses or other members and is in the alleged perpetrator's best interests. Reasonable conditions may be imposed.

PROCEDURES FOR ADDRESSING SERIOUS VIOLENCE

1. Incidents of abuse other than child abuse can appropriately be divided into two categories: serious incidents of violence, and less serious incidents. In determining the seriousness of an incident, the totality of the circumstances should be considered, including:

- The nature of the conduct perpetrated;
- Whether the conduct would amount to a criminal offence;
- The impact, including physical and emotional harm, upon the victim and the Bowmanville Tennis Club community;
- The motivation or underlying causes for the conduct;
- The ages of the alleged perpetrator and victim;
- Whether the conduct is isolated or reflects a pattern of misconduct;
- Whether the alleged perpetrator acted alone or with others.

2. Uttering threats of serious bodily harm or death, criminal intimidation, assault causing serious bodily harm, sexual assault, arson, robbery, stalking, extortion, gang, or group related violence, and hate motivated violence, will almost always be regarded as serious.

3. Fighting not resulting in bodily harm, some violent acts such as throwing objects, some threats and intimidation, and some inappropriate but not criminal behaviour may be regarded as less serious.

Serious Incidents of Violence

4. All serious incidents of violence shall be reported to the police and to the Director(s).

5. If a child is involved, the parents or guardians of the child must be contacted with the least possible delay. However, reporting to the police should not be delayed because of the unavailability of a parent or guardian.

6. If, in the course of an investigation, the police need to speak to a member of the Bowmanville Tennis Club regarding alleged abuse, the Bowmanville Tennis Club will cooperate after being informed of the nature of the request.

7. Any member of the Bowmanville Tennis Club may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a suspected perpetrator of a serious incident of violence. However, any Discipline Committee struck must determine whether to defer its investigation or disciplinary proceedings until the police investigation is complete.

8. Regardless of whether a member of the Bowmanville Tennis Club initiates disciplinary proceedings, the Director(s) must consider whether an internal Bowmanville Tennis Club investigation should be conducted, or internal disciplinary proceedings commenced, and determine the appropriate timing of any investigation or proceedings.

9. Any internal investigation conducted by the Bowmanville Tennis Club and any resulting disciplinary proceedings in connection with alleged abuse should be informed by the desirability of:

- Avoiding or reducing trauma to the victim;
- Respecting the confidentiality and privacy interests of all affected parties, to the extent possible;
- Ensuring fairness to the Bowmanville Tennis Club member against whom a complaint has been made.

Less Serious Incidents

10. Where a less serious incident of abuse is alleged, the allegations must be reported to the Bowmanville Tennis Club Executive as soon as possible and make them familiar with the alleged perpetrator and/or the victim. The Executive must determine whether the Director(s) should begin an investigation.

11. If the incident is reported to the Director(s), he, she or they must consider whether an internal Bowmanville Tennis Club investigation should be conducted, or internal disciplinary proceedings commenced, and determine the appropriate timing of any investigation or proceedings. Such an investigation will generally be informal and expeditious, given the nature of the allegations.

12. If the Executive deems the incident does not need to be reported, the Executive will provide a written report, explaining the facts and the manner in by which the incident was dealt. If appropriate, the Director(s) may initiate a further investigation or disciplinary proceedings.
